UNDERGROUND DANCE MASTERS SELECTED
AS FEATURE EVENT BY DFA TO PREMIER AT THE WALTER READE THEATER IN NY.

"The UDM Invades New York!"

Underground Dance Masters selected for its' New York Premiere in DFA's 36th annual DANCE ON FILM FESTIVAL January 5, 2008. The DFA states that the film is "A tour de force exploration of the origin, evolution, history and the creators of the Urban Dance forms of Boogaloo, Locking, Zig Zag, Popping, Roboting, Rocking and B'boying, a previously unknown part of American Pop history."

Director/producer Thomas Guzman-Sanchez and Co-Producer Paul Guzman-Sanchez will be personally introducing the film at the Walter Reade Theater in the NY Lincoln Center, Saturday at 8:30pm. The Guzman-Sanchez brothers will be conducting several Mini Urban Dance Training Camps™ while in New York which will be open to the public. The worldwide response has been overwhelming as many will be flying into NY for this special premier event.

The film is A Clockman Vision production, directed and written by Thomas Guzman-Sanchez and produced by Thomas and Paul Guzman-Sanchez.
