

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Rock & Roll Hall of Fame Honors Latino American Author and Urban Street Dance Legends.

On Feb 20, 2015 @ 7PM the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame + Museum will host the world premier of "Underground Dance Masters: Final History of a Forgotten Era" a feature documentary. The film is based on the book of the same title that exposes the actual history that led up to what the world calls Hip-hop and sets the record straight.

Los Angeles - January 20, 2015 – Rock Hall's Jason Hanley, Ph.D.- Director of Education is producing this public event that will take place on February 20th 2015 @ 7pm in the Rock Hall's state-of-the-art Foster Theater. The night will include the premier of the documentary film, a dance performance followed by a discussion and book signing of "Underground Dance Masters: Final History of a Forgotten Era" (ABC-Clio).

The movie and book, have taken over 20 years to complete. "Researching and writing was just one part of the challenge," says Guzman-Sanchez. "Over years of research I discovered a method of data verification for spoken history." The film features a collective of 21 legendary street dancers including co-producer/dancer Paul Guzman-Sanchez with director/choreographer Kenny Ortega. The result is a historical analysis factually presenting new unknown facts in American pop culture history. The film is based on the book and follows key dance groups (Chain Reaction, Electric Boogaloo, The Lockers, Rock Steady Crew and more) through often momentary but impactful careers. This work documents for the first time the who, what, when, where and why of individual dance innovations. Also in attendance will be Oakland Boogaloo Dancer, Jerry "The Worm" Rentie.

From Michael Jackson's Thriller to the video clips on YouTube these movements have continued to influence generations. The film and book reveal the innovators and the origins of these important dance moves. This work exposes the facts through rare archival video, film and photo's as proof of the history, evolution and origin.

Source-Specialist LLC. Chairman Fred L. Cerritos has committed to the independent financing of the feature film "OG Funk", written by Thomas Guzman-Sanchez and Robert Kubilos-Cabrero. Based on a true story, the film is a biographical dramatization. This Clockman Vision production is scheduled to begin shooting summer 2015. The production team is led by seasoned film director Robert Kubilos-Cabrero (Dish Dogs, MTV Road Rules), and with cinematographer Igor Meglic (Furious 7, Captain America: Winter Soldier, World War Z).

Official website: <http://www.dancemaster.com>

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/UndergroundDanceMasters>

Twitter: @UrbanDanceBook- <https://twitter.com/UrbanDanceBook>

For more information please contact: Publicist - 818-727-1979